Circuit court next week. The grand jury will be asked to investigate vote buying which it is alleged was done at the recent Republican primary.

J. F. Justice, brother of Happy, who has been stationed near Tracy City, with the T. C. & I. Railway Co., the past several months, is in Newport this week. He will be stationed here for the summer and will work between Newport and Hot Springs.

C. E. Bales, a popular attorney from Jefferson City, spent Saturday in Newport. Mr. Bales is thinking of entering the newspaper field. He thinks Jefferson City and Jefferson county would support a first class weekly.

Fifteen of the employees at the tannery went on a strike Tuesday morning. They had been drawing $1.10 per day and asked $1.50, which was refused. It is thought the men will seek employment elsewhere and the tannery company will fill their places with other men.

Mack Cody of Bristol, has been spending several days with Newport friends.

Mrs. J. D. Netherton has gone to Elizabethton to spend a week with homefolks.

Friends will be pleased to learn that T. N. Huff landed his plum as deputy marshall. Mr. Huff has had experience in this position and is well fitted for the job.

We have about straightened out the Plain Talk shop and are now ready to do job printing of any kind. We print everything but money and do it in first class order. Our price may not be the lowest, but our work is the best.

It is said Gen. J. B. Cox and Joseph Howard, candidate for congress from the First district will be at Newport Monday and address the voters at one o'clock in the court house. Circuit court will be in session and Judge Henderson will be asked to give them a short time.

Mrs. Lewis Smith of Crestmont, died at a Knoxville hospital last Friday morning after an operation removing a tumor which weighed forty-three pounds. The tumor was of thirteen years standing. Mrs. Smith was forty-nine years of age and leaves a husband and three or four grown children.

Judge and Mrs. H. N. Cate entertained a number of their friends Friday night with a Victrola party at their handsome home on Clifton Heights. Fine music, elegant refreshments and a happy social time was enjoyed by the following named persons who were present: Judge and Mrs. H. N. Cate; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Early; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Helm; Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Woodward; Misses Lena Belle Starnes; May Sprout; Willie Taylor; Gladys Lee Woodward; Lillian Cate, Prof. Mallonee, Master Evan Cate.

TAYLOR GROCERY CO

John Ruble and Burnett Smith had as their guests over Sunday the following young people from Morristown: Misses Pauline Bruner and Blanche Holston and Messrs. Clyde Mitchell and Clyde Jones.

Mrs. Ed. Robeson was the lucky one in the drawing contest at Duncan & Greer's last week, winning a forty-five dollar sewing machine. A Free machine was given to the lady holding a number drawn from a box by a small child. This enterprising hardware firm is pushing the Free sewing machine and have launched an extensive advertising campaign.

Ody Johnson, a negro, aged about thirty years, was killed by a freight train last Thursday morning in the Irish cut. He, in company with two or three other negroes, had caught the train in the cut and Johnson fell from the top of a box car. Both legs were cut off and he was otherwise mangled. Johnson was from Atlanta. He lived several hours after the accident and was taken to the J. P. Hedrick undertaking establishment to await the end. He was buried in the negro cemetery at the expense of the Southern Railway.

Jersey cows for sale.—D. ALLEN.

Letter from Hackler West, who is now one of Uncle Sam's soldiers stationed at Vera Cruz, says he is just preparing to go on outpost duty. The letter was written May 2nd and at that time 18 soldiers had been killed and seven wounded. Occasionally one gets killed at night. There are 12,000 soldiers, 12 battle ships and several other gunboats at Vera Cruz.

Hart, the little son of William Barnes of Crestmont, N. C., suffered an accident a few days ago which will probably cost him his eye sight. He and his little brother, Lacy, were playing and had in some manner gotten hold of dynamite cap which they laid on the railroad track and burst with a rock or other instrument. Pieces of the cap and contents flew into Hart's eyes and one is completely out with but little hope for the other. Lacy was also injured, but not seriously.

Quite a surprise in Newport social circles occurred Sunday evening when Mr. Joseph Owsley of Glendale, Kentucky, claimed as his partner for life Miss Winnie Davis Brown. Miss Brown is the young daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Brown, is highly educated and accomplished and has many winning traits of character that endear her to a large circle of friends with whom she is justly popular. Mr. Owsley comes from a prominent family long connected with the business and political history of Kentucky and is himself at the head of large land and fine stock interests. The wedding was a very quiet home affair, only the family and a few special friends being present. The young couple left on the Carolina Special followed by the good wishes of their many friends who wish for them bon voyage and hope their married life will be a grand, sweet song.
